AWARD NOMINATION AND CRITERIA

Alumni awards are presented to alumni who are creating a better world – making positive changes in their community, outstanding achievements and innovation, commitment to excellence, community engagement and leadership, and the well-being of society.

If you know an alum who exemplifies these qualities, please nominate them. The deadline is April 5, 2019.

Everyone is invited to nominate candidates by completing the information required in the nomination form.

Eligibility;

- Nominees must be a living alumnus/a of Dalhousie University
- Can not be serving on the Dalhousie Board of Governors or the Dalhousie Alumni Association Board
- Can not be a sitting member of a municipal, provincial or federal government
- Faculty and staff of the university are eligible; however, their contributions should be above and beyond those expected of their normal work duties
- Self-nominations will be accepted

How to Nominate;

- All nominations must be submitted electronically on the Dalhousie alumni website by the posted deadline.
- All nominations that do not fulfill the selection guidelines will not be considered
- Alternate arrangements for submitting a nomination and/or supplemental information may be made by contacting Kirsten Tobin, kirsten.tobin@dal.ca or 902.494-2807

Requirements for Nominations;
